

Bushtea and Cake - 'Reclaiming the Narrative' Community Debates

Hackney's Black History Season returns this October. Discover, learn and participate in events across the borough

About This Event

Get ready for the four electrifying Friday Evenings in October as St Michael and All Angels celebrate Black History Month with the theme: "RECLAIMING THE NARRATIVES". Join in stimulating conversations and entertainment as we listen and challenge the narratives. Come and be entertained by up-and-coming local artists, and indulge in delicious bush tea, mouth-watering cake, and scrumptious food and drinks.

4th October -Stereotypes about black women: Hosted by Sheba Montserrat.

11th October - Stereotypes about the Black community: Hosted by The Revd Natasha Beckles.

18th October - Stereotypes about Black men: Hosted by Rudi Lickwood.

25th October - Stereotypes about Black Youth: Hosted by Ibs Sesay.

Event Time

Every Friday
until Fri, 25th Oct 2024

Fri,
11th Oct
2024

6:00pm - 8:00pm

Event Price

Free

Event Location

St Michael and All
Angels Church
55 Fountayne Road,
London
N16 7ED

For more information, visit:

<https://stmichaelstokenewington.org.uk/events/category/st-michael-and-all-angels/>

Accessibility Information

For accessibility information, please email: vicar@stmichaelstokenewington.org.uk or call 020 3343 6182 / 079 0317 5038

