

Workshops: Djembe Rhythms

Groove to the rhythm of West Africa with Master Drummer Abass Dodoo in this exciting series of workshops.

About This Event

Discover the art of the Djembe, a versatile drum used for storytelling, communication, and celebration. During the workshops, you will master and play basic rhythms and techniques under the guidance of the One Drum team while collaborating with fellow members to create a powerful group performance.

You will also have the opportunity to perform at Hoxton Hall on Sunday 13th April, a chance to showcase your new skills and share the joy of music with the Hackney Circle community.

Important: There are four sessions in this series of workshops, all dates below.
