

Ethiopian Cooking

Come along to Made in Hackney to discover the taste of Ethiopia.

About This Event

Are you enchanted by Ethiopian Cuisine and dream about creating the colourful plates full of flavour and wonder at home? In this class you will be infused with storytelling of the evocative recipes, many passed down through Woin's family and then developed to fit a modern, plant-based lifestyle. Each plate is crafted to ensure health and nutrition whilst retaining the nostalgic traditions of Ethiopian fare.

To book, please click here. If you don't have access to internet, call 020 8442 4266 and we can fill the form over the phone with you (this class is for people diagnosed with Type 2 Diabetes or been told they are at risk).

To ensure a smooth experience for everyone, please only attend the class if you've received a booking confirmation from us and have confirmed your spot. As space is limited, we want to avoid turning anyone away. Keep in mind that our classes often have waiting lists, but spots do sometimes open up. If you're on a waiting list, we'll prioritize you for future classes and courses. Thanks for your understanding!

Accessibility Information

 Event Time

Sun,
11th May
2025

11:00am - 1:00pm

 Event Price

Free

 Event Location

Made in Hackney
(Liberty Hall)
128 Clapton
Common, Spring Hill,
Clapton, London
E5 9AA

Please note, Made in Hackney kitchen handle allergens and cannot guarantee food prepared will be allergen free. Participants attend at their own risk. Made in Hackney's kitchen is wheelchair accessible.

