

Core Arts Summer Fair and Art Show

Come along to Core Arts Community Garden to celebrate the summer and all things creative!

About This Event

As part of London's Open Garden Weekend, Core Arts is hosting a Summer Fair in its award winning garden. Hackney Circle members are invited to take part in Garden tours, bargain plant hunting and craft workshops. There will also be live music, tea and coffee, and an art show. Children are welcome to attend.

Accessibility Information

This event will take place at Core Arts Community Garden. Entrance to Core Arts community garden behind St Barnabas church is from Homerton High Street E9 6DL. Round the corner is the smaller garden on St Barnabas Terrace. The two gardens are minutes apart from each other. Homerton Grove is nearby with its meadow strip and orchard. Core Arts is fully accessible. Accessible toilets can be accessed at Core Arts main building on St Barnabas Terrace.
