

Grand Union Orchestra | De Beauvoir Jazz Festival (De Beauvoir Arms)

Celebrate jazz and 40 years of the Grand Union Orchestra

About This Event

40 years ago, composer Tony Haynes's vision of creating a music and theatre company that brought together performers from all the diverse cultures flourishing in Britain today gave birth to a remarkable new ensemble – the Grand Union Orchestra. Led by Claude Deppa, experience the magic of South and Western African as well as Caribbean Jazz at three special venues during the festival. The event is free, however, booking is required. You can book by visiting: <https://www.debeauvoirjazzfestival.co.uk/freeevents>
