

Exhibition of Jazz Posters

An exhibition featuring brilliant posters and artworks by Sir Eduardo Paolozzi CBE RA, Keith Haring amongst others forms part of De Beauvoir Jazz Festival

About This Event

The exhibition is hosted by 20th Century Posters at 40 Cross Street, a short walk from De Beauvoir Town.

Eduardo Paolozzi - the Scottish designer and artist, is possibly best known in London for his tile murals at Tottenham Court Road as well as the magnificent sculpture "Newton after Blake" in the forecourt of the British Library. As it happens, Paolozzi also designed a series of posters for the Soho Jazz Festival that ran from 1986 to 2002.

Twentieth Century Posters is led by David Bownes, previously Head of Collections at London Transport Museum, Director of Collections at the National Army Museum. This exhibition is free. no booking is required.
