

Ceramics in the City 2025

The annual ceramics fair and exhibit returns to Museum of the Home this autumn, celebrating world-class artistry and craftsmanship.

About This Event

Located in the creative hub of East London, the fair highlights the artistry of ceramicists from London and beyond. The weekend will showcase an array of styles, techniques, colours, and textures – from functional tableware and earthy stoneware to vivid, ornamental objects and striking, one-of-a-kind pieces.

Meet, shop, talk to the makers, and watch live demonstrations from artists as they share the incredible skill and brilliance of this art form. You can see the full list of stallholders here: <https://museumofthehome.org.uk/whats-on/ceramics-in-the-city-2025/>
