

The Quiet Ear

Come along to see Raymond Antrobus in conversation with Joe Dunthorne

About This Event

THE QUIET EAR tells the story of Raymond's upbringing at the intersection of race and disability. Growing up in Hackney to an English mother and Jamaican father, educated in both mainstream and deaf schooling systems, Raymond explores the shame of miscommunication and the joy of finding community, and shines a light on the decline of deaf education in Britain. Throughout, Raymond sets his story alongside those of other D/deaf cultural figures, from painters to silent film stars, poets to performers – the inspiring models of D/deaf creativity he did not have growing up. This event requires booking in advance. You can book by visiting: <https://www.pagesofhackney.co.uk/events-calendar/> Co tickets are available

Accessibility Information

The following accessibility features are provided at the event:

Sign language interpretation and Wheelchair accessibility.

The Old School Rooms are located on the first floor of Clapton Park United Reformed Church. The room is accessible via steps from the street, with an alternate entrance via lift. Seating will be provided for all attendees. The

Event Time

Thu,
2nd Oct
2025

7:00pm - 8:30pm

Event Price

£4.0

Event Location

Old School Rooms
Powerscroft Rd,
Lower Clapton,
London
E5 0PU

speakers will use microphones and a small PA system, and the event audio will be recorded and made available as a podcast.

If you have further questions regarding accessibility, please submit your enquiry here: <https://events.humanitix.com/the-quiet-ear-raymond-antrobus-in-conversation-with-joe-dunthorne/contact?hxchl=hex-col>

