Chorus: Dvořák - The Spectre's Bride

Join the Hackney Festival Chorus for Dvorak's spooky "Spectre's Bride"

About This Event

This December we will be performing Dvorak's "The Spectre's Bride", recently performed in the inaugural concert of the Royal Opera's new conductor Jacob Hrusa and described there as a rarely performed cantata. Its title in Czech can be translated as "The wedding shirts" and it sets to music a story of a ghost returning to his betrothed.

Conductor - John Andrews

Soprano - Emma Dogliani

Tenor - John Upperton

Bass - Jim Cleverton
