

More Than a Place: Centre for Studies of Home Annual Lecture 2026

A talk and Q&A with author Katie McCrory, exploring the eight universal emotions that come together to create 'the feeling of home'.

About This Event

One in three people say they feel more at home in places other than where they live, and nearly half think the media doesn't reflect their life at home.

Author and researcher Katie McCrory has spent the last decade exploring the idea of home, thanks to her leadership of the global and award-winning IKEA Life at Home Report. To date, the research has been conducted in more than 40 countries, with over 300,000 people. One thing is clear—the way we feel about our home has a major impact on how we feel about ourselves.

In her upcoming book, Where the Heart Is, Katie expands on these major findings and other revealing insights, alongside her personal experiences and

 Event Time

Wed, 18th Feb 2026

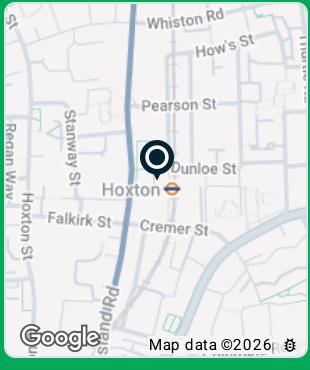

6:00pm - 8:30pm

 Event Price

Free

 Event Location

Museum of the Home
136 Kingsland Rd,
London
E2 8EA

Map data ©2026 Google

practical solutions. The central theme of her book is an exploration of the eight universal emotions that come together to create 'the feeling of home'

You can book your free ticket by visiting:

<https://museumofthehome.org.uk/whats-on/more-than-a-place/#book-tickets>

Accessibility Information

The Museum of the home is fully accessible.

