

Palestine Looks Back | London Short Film Festival

LSFF presents Palestine Looks Back, short films that illuminate diverse Palestinian perspectives.

About This Event

Framing Palestine not simply as a land or a subject of Western scrutiny but as an active gaze directed toward Europe and the West, these films illuminate diverse Palestinian perspectives. Spanning fiction, documentary, and experimental forms, they challenge the notion of Palestine as an "elsewhere," revealing the deep entanglements of occupation and genocide within Europe.

You can book your ticket by visiting: <https://riocinema.org.uk/Rio.dll/WhatsOn?f=1884934> Concessions price £8.50 / Standard price £11.50

Accessibility Information

Rio Cinema is accessible. For further information, contact: 020 7241 9410 (2pm - 8pm daily) / Manager@riocinema.org.uk

Event Time

Thu,
29th Jan
2026

8:45pm - 11:00pm

Event Price

£8.5

Event Location

Rio Cinema
107 Kingsland High
Street, London
E8 2BP

Map data ©2026

A small map showing the location of Rio Cinema. The map is centered on the address 107 Kingsland High Street, E8 2BP. A blue location pin is placed on the map at this exact address. The map also shows surrounding streets like Manse Rd, Sydner Rd, Rector Rd, and Downs Rd, as well as nearby landmarks like the Hackney Empire and the Victoria Park. The map is a standard Google Maps interface with a white background and light gray grid lines.

