

Brunch at OKN1

Students of Catering and Hospitality Department at New City College Hackney would like to invite you to a special, complimentary brunch hosted at our trainee restaurant.

About This Event

Come along to support local upcoming students! New City College Hackney have invited Hackney Circle members to a special, complimentary afternoon tea hosted at our trainee restaurant.

What's included in your brunch?

A selection of teas, coffee, and soft drinks
A delightful variety of sandwiches, cakes, pastries and salads

This afternoon tea will be served by our Level 1 students from the Catering and Hospitality Department, who will be preparing and serving the tea as part of their assessments. This provides them with invaluable experience in practicing their skills to become the future professionals of the industry.

There is a cap of 25 members per session. Booking is required for this event, and the booking deadline is Friday 20th March. Please email info@hackneycircle.co.uk to attend.

Accessibility Information

OKN1 is wheelchair accessible. Please note, this is a trainee kitchen and the food prepped will form part of the students assessment. We cannot guarantee food will be
