

Brainfools Circus + Theatre Presents: Balance

Through a seamless fusion of fluid choreography and high-stakes partner acrobatics, the dynamic duo ich-duO (Jared Shanks and Toffy Paulweber) explores the universal challenge of building trust when the world tips over.

About This Event

In Balance, Brainfools strips away traditional circus rigs to reclaim a landscape of "found objects"—heavy industrial beer kegs, rickety wooden planks, and fragile glass bottles—transforming them into visceral metaphors for resilience and reliance.
