

Sounds Like Home

Join Sounds Like Home's weekly choir project that celebrates diverse heritage through music.

About This Event

Sounds Like Home is a choir project inviting international women from a wide range of backgrounds to celebrate their diverse heritage through music by Counterpoints Arts. Participants share and sing songs that remind them of home, delving into the stories, languages, and genres that shape their cultural identities. The project aims to build a vibrant community, connecting women through the universal language of song. This event is suitable to those that self-define as an international woman. This event will run every Wednesday until 26th June 2024. No booking is required.
