

New Age Games: Tennis

Hackney New Age Games proudly presents their 2024 autumn - winter programme. Come along to take part in a fun, mood-boosting activity with local residents aged 55+.

About This Event

Practice your serving skills at this friendly tennis session. This session is for all abilities.

New Age Games helps residents to increase and sustain exercise to recommended levels. Important: To be eligible to attend the scheme, users must be a Hackney resident aged 50+. Every effort will be made to accommodate attendees, but we base places on a first come, first served basis on the day of each event. This is reflected within our guidance on our webpage. It is advised that you book in advance before attending. You can book by using the details in the accessibility information. There will not be a session on 19 February. No sessions held from 8 December 2024 - 19 January 2025.
